“ Richard, there are never the right words, and while I wasn't blessed to know Becky well, she always had a sweet smile and encouraging words to say when I saw her at SS events and at church. I know she is "running" with the saints. Her service this morning was beautifully done. She is definitely walking with our Lord and Savior. May God hold you and your family in the days ahead.

“ Richard, although I never had the pleasure of meeting Becky, from your words and actions over time I believe she was such a wonderful woman who will be sorely missed by all that knew her and whose lives she touched. I can not imagine the pain you are experiencing, I pray that you will find comfort in God and the knowledge that He is with you and your family during this time. While we are ever so sorry that we can not be there with you as you go through this Cindy and I send all of our love and prayers. God Bless you and the family, I hope that we are able to see you in the near future. Deirell and Cindy Byrd

“ Richard, there are no words that will make things easy at this difficult time. I am so sorry for your loss. Becky was a one in a million. Her beautiful smile, her sense of humor and some of the silly faces she would make back in our earlier days. I know that she is dancing in heaven and free of pain. I pray that the Lord will wrap his precious arms around you and your family during this sad journey. God Bless You.
