“ My deepest sympathy to Warren, Amanda and Ashley, Janice and family. Becky was a wonderful person, so full of life and always had a smile for me. She did an awesome job raising Amanda and Ashley, she should be so proud of them. I know the pain is so hard now and you feel like it will never leave you. Remember she would want you to be happy and remember her in the good times with all your love. She is now in heaven and will be your guardian angel watching over you always. She loved you all so much. She will really be missed. Love you all, Alice

“ *Jeff and family;
Grieve all you want, that's what God made most of his tears for. After this initial grieving is almost done, the rest of the tears will be for remembering those Happy times that pop up unbidden, just to strengthened your heart and your love for the one you lost.
At times like these, your family will help you remember all those good and happy times and you all can shed those tears together. Let God strengthen you so you all can share those good and happy times together.
God Bless you one and all.*
