“ Richard Garrett was choir director at Calhoun (GA) First United Methodist Church. I was fortunate to be a part of the youth choir, His Kids, under his direction. We toured churches throughout Georgia and Alabama. In the summer of 1980 he bravely took a bunch of teenagers on a trip of a lifetime to New Orleans. Oh what fond memories we all have from our adventure. Richard "Lived the Good Life". To his family: thanks for sharing him with us and may you find comfort in knowing that there are "No More Tears When We Get To Heaven". Rest In Peace Richard. You are remembered.

As much as anyone else, I feel like Richard has made the Auburn Knights what they are today. What a guy. Next time Gabriel goes to blow his horn, he'll have a swingin' bass man with him.
