“ Richard, you fought a good fight and did it your way. At least you are no longer in pain. I will keep cheering for the Eagles and when they win the Super Bowl, I will smoke that cigar for you.

“ My thoughts and prayers go to the Family of my dear friend Richard. We sold cars together, we watched sports together, and we just hung out together. He was always fun to be around and always knew how to keep me going. I miss him and thank his parents for him. Rest in peace my dear friend,
