“ Our heart felt condolences to the Fuentes family. Bob was a rare treasure in this world as his heart for the Lord Jesus was so evident in his daily walk. We shared many fruitful days together in Stockbridge, Ga and at First Christian Church where Bob's presence was readily known and well respected. I served as his preacher for many years and he was always a source of strength and inspiration to me personally. Thank you Bob. You made an indelible mark on our hearts. Our youth presented a play based on the Temple worship and the Holy of Holies, and Bob was miked and was the loud, convincing “voice of God” during the play. He was awesome! It is also awesome that he went to being the voice of God to hearing the voice of God say, “Well done good and faithful servant...”. We know he will be missed. Our prayers are close by for all. Man, I enjoyed many a buffet breakfast/lunch with him. His smile and laughter contagious. Rest well dear brother in Christ. One day we all all feast together at the banquet table of the Lord. Our love and prayers, Ken and Linda Davidson.
