“ My condolences to the family. I pray the sure hope as found in the bible will bring comfort to your hearts. "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of Christ and come out." (John 5:28,29 Acts 24:15) Yes, we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again, and the life to be enjoyed when this takes place will be truly wonderful. (Revelation 21:3,4)

“ Worked with your father 16 years at Quaker Oats. He was a good man and hard worker. Visited Bob and Bev a couple of years ago at their home. I was looking forward to having Bob visit us in Ohio. I sympathize with your loss....and my loss of a friend. May God console you in your hour of grief.

“ Will, Leigh Ann, and family,
So sorry to hear about the loss of your dad. Such a compassionate, caring, loving, and patient father, husband, and son. What a positive impact he had on your life, and helped shape the wonderful person you are today.

Sincerely,
George and Sally Scholderer

“ Psalm 30:5 Lets us know that "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."

Know that we are saddened by the passing of Mr. Moody and will miss him riding his bike or just working in his yard.

Praying that the faith you have in Jesus will strengthen your hearts.

“ Will, our hearts truly ache for you right now, to suffer such great loss so close together is unimaginable. We offer our deepest sympathy to you and your family and we pray for the peace of God which passeth all understanding to rest and abide in your heart. Death is really a celebration of life. Celebrating the memories, celebrating the lives touched, celebrating the legacy left and most assuredly celebrating their eternity with our Heavenly Father. May God bless and keep you.

“ Will and Family.

Words cannot convey how heavy my heart felt for you when I heard about your dad. To lose both parents in such a short space of time, I just can't imagine. Please know my love and thoughts are with you and your family at this hard to deal with time.
