“ Roger was one of the most humble people I've known. He had a beautiful smile that always made a person feel special and had a way of looking at you when there was a conversation, that made you feel that he was listening only to you. He loved his sweet wife Debbie and they shared a deep love for Jesus. I can just picture him in heaven as one of the great cloud of witnesses looking down upon her, his family and friends, encouraging us to finish well. We miss you for now Roger, but will see you again...even so come Lord Jesus, Amen
