“ On Oct.9th 2012, Roger called my brother, James Earl Carr, and said he was ready to leave this place called home, He said before he goes he wanted him to call me LINDA {Carr} Johnson and ask me if i would come over to James Earls/ Marlyn's house on Sunday Oct 10th, 2012 @ 2.00 He wanted to say the Sinners Prayer. I meet him at their home and we talked for hrs. Roger talked with me with a Sincer heart, He said when his time is done here on earth that he wanted to go to heaven, He said that he watches the christian stations on TV. and does believe...He asked me a lot of questions and We said the salvation prayer together. I do believe that Roger is resting in the arms of Jesus right now... Roger has been like a best friend to my brother James Earl since 1975 and in return always seeing him with my brother, He felt like a brother to me..I hold lots of special memories in my mine and my heart for Roger and I will miss him so much but he will never be forgotten
