“ Every single week, it never failed, there he came walking in the bank. He would always have a smile on his face and something for me to help him with. Over the years, it got to where he would walk in the door and say "where's Sarah"? If I was helping another customer, he would sit in the lobby, leaning over giggling at me until I noticed. You will be missed more than you know! Thank you for all of the laughs over the years!
