“ Candy and family, I was saddened to hear that Ron passed away. I just want to share my admiration of your Dad. He was such a good neighbor to my parents, Lottie and Barney Strength while you all lived on Bedford Terrace. My parents really loved your Dad. I am sorry for your loss. My prayers are with you.

“ To the entire family of Ron:

I am so very sorry for your loss.

Joann, you were his joy. Candy and Jody, he could not talk about either of you without the wonderful look of pride in his eyes and the love in his heart.

All the kids here in MN, thank you for always looking out for him.

We at work will always remember Ron as having the biggest office with the largest window looking out.

I will always cherish the lunch times in the Command Center. Chick-Fil-a, waffle fries, junior's hamburgers, pizza. I will miss going to the farmers market and bringing back the green tomatoes for Ron. They were a bit hard to find, but when I did, Ron got them. Ron always came back with how wonderful they tasted. He loved his fried green tomatoes.

When Ron had his pacemaker put in, we at work all took turns checking on him. The guards made sure he had the first spot nearest the door. The guards, the people in Media Services and even the maintenance people all took turns checking on him. We almost had an hourly schedule for it. It was worth it.

Ron allowed me to use his beloved truck when I was without a vehicle. I would be able to get rides to/from work from others, but it was during lunch that I would use it to get groceries. Driving that truck, I told him that it had a really nice deep sound. He was so proud of it. He said it had a bit of a sound that would make people turn their heads. It truly did. So, to the grandson that will be driving it now, know that your grandfather was so proud of that truck and proud of you and the Alabama colors that the truck has, I know you will carry on that pride.

Ron will be missed. He was a true southern gentleman.
