“ Johnny was my oldest and dearest friend. I am 90 years old and I have never met a more caring and honest man. I first met Johnny when he was 18, and from that day forward we were best friends. Once I got to know Johnny I knew he would always take good care of my sister Faye, and he never let me down. In the latter part of ours lives, after many years apart, we had such good times with our families in Florida. Almost every night we would play cards or cook together and loved to fish together.

Johnny and I had such long conversations about a myriad of subjects. We agreed we were not going to change the world but talked about it anyway. We always enjoyed each other's company. He was such a fine man. I always thought I would be first to go.

Both my wife Jo and I loved Johnny like family. We will miss him.

Goodbye dear friend. No worries and no more pain.
We will have lots to say when we catch up again.
Love, Paul and Jo Story
