“ Most everyone knows him as Ronnie, but to me he was just Dad. My dad was one of a kind for sure. Funny, Caring, and most importantly stood for what was just and right. I hope he knows just how proud i was to be his son. I love you daddy and can't wait to see you again. Love your forever grateful son, Derek

“ I am so shocked and sad to hear of Ronnie's passing. I don't get out much lately because of knee problems but I happened to run into Ronnie about a month ago at a local store. We hadn't seen each other in a while and it was great to catch up. He, of course, brought up our hilarious road trip to Mobile with a mutual friend Morris. It was so nice to see him again and enjoy his wonderful sense of humour. When we finally parted way my jaws were sore from laughing so hard. Ronnie was one of a kind. Never knew a stranger. A caring person who always made you feel welcome and wanted. Not surprising considering he's the son of Roy and Bama. My prayers go out to Donna and the boys along with the rest of the family. Ronnie will be sorely missed and I am so glad to have the fond memories from our time in the Lions Club. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Ronnie was always a blast to be around and I enjoyed playing with him at FBC Prattville with his talents on bass. I've almost always associated FBC Prattville praise band and orchestra with Ronnie Wilson, so it we'll definitely miss him. Ronnie will bring some bass to the orchestra in heaven now. Prayers for a Donna and the family during this time.

“ I have many memories of my times with Ronnie & his family Ronnie was a good man. I remember some church couples gatherings in different homes & the fun times. I remember coaching Ryan on my soccer team. And, of course, I have a long time connection with Donna's family. I know Heaven won't need Ronnie for any audio help, but several bands are happy about the new bass player. Praying for y'all, Larry

“ Ronnie used to make my day when I got off an airplane in practically any airport across the country. I would hear a familiar voice yelling my name, over the crowd, almost like a P.A. system. Ithe would be Ronnie, as he made his way through the people, to give me a special, Hello! I don'the know who was prouder, myself or Ronnie, to see someone from Prattville! He and I got to renew our friendship during his many visits to see his father at Greensprings. God Speed, Ronnie. You will be missed! Donna, you will continue to be in my prayers, and Joyce's as well. Clarence Gibbons
