“ Angie,
I never dreamed when I saw you, Mack and Sandra at Jim's funeral Sandra was sick and would soon be leaving you. My thoughts and prayers have been with you this week. Although I have not been around Sandra much in the past years, I have many fond memories of her. I always loved her unique smile and laughter. I will continue to pray for you in the coming days. From experience, I can tell you that eventually that horrific pain and sorrow will eventually evolve into soothing, precious memories. But it does take time so don't become discouraged. She is out of pain and in the presence of the Lord. We can't even begin to imagine the joy and wonder of where she is and what she is experiencing. Just remember, you will be with her again. This is not goodbye, but farewell. My love to you all.

“ Angie, I am so very sorry about the loss of your sweet Mom. I know from being your co-worker for the last 4 years how close you two were and how sudden this was. You know I'm here if you need me and in the mean time I'll be in the wings sending up fervent and unceasing prayers for God's love and comfort to you and your family. God Bless you all.
