“ Please accept my condolences during this difficult time. May you find a measure of comfort in the promise Jesus gave when he was among us: “Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

“ My heart broke this morning when I got the horrible news. I will forever think of Scotty as a brother to me & I know he is looking down watching over us until we meet him again! When that day comes I know he will be the 1st one to greet us at the pearly gates. We have shared many laughs, tears & fights over the past 27 years but I wouldn't trade them for anything! I have so many memories of Scotty there is to many to list but one of my favorite is riding with him in that Grand Am to Selma to pick his paycheck up because he always took me to the mall to buy me something and took me out to lunch lol RIP my brother you will forever be missed and always in our hearts! Keep a watch over us and keep us safe love you, Ann Wooten & Family
