Danny, you and the girls and Shannon's mother are in our prayers. I was just thinking Shannon is whole and she's probably at the feet of Jesus right now. God bless you all. I know one day there is going to be a great homecoming day.

“ I met Shannon many years ago when I was a single mother with 2 small children. I had moved in next to then Millbrook Church of God. Shannon was so very kind to me when I visited the church. She taught the singles class at that time so she invited me to come and be a part of that. From then til now that has been a very dear memory of her genuinely caring for me at a time of brokenness. You will be missed, but we WILL meet again my friend. Rest in sweet and glorious peace in the presence of our precious Lord. 💕

“ I remember the day that Shannon got saved at the Assembly of god Church in Thomasville, Al. When she got up from that alter, she was forever changed. I remember her with those two sweet girls one on each side. She was determined to make hr life count for the Lord. Always happy with a smile on her face. I'm sure she was welcomed home with, "My good and faithful servant." We all loved Shannon!

“ Never seen anyone with the fire and passion for God as Shannon had! Service at The Church of the Highlands with over 1500 people you always knew where she was sitting because you would always hear "Amen" or "Preach it pastor."
If there was one person that I knew was praying for me daily', it was her.
She will be missed so much but you better believe she is burning up those streets of gold right now running and shouting. Love you Shannon.
