“ Max and Hank McLelland send their condolences to the Seamon family. Mr Seamon was one of the original ballpark dads in Prattville. Tough guy,tough coach. Had lots of great times at the ballpark playing for him. Fishing with him and my dad on the river and seeing him in T town at Bama games. So many old school Prattville memories.

“ Shon was a great friend. Hadn't stayed in touch. Shon was always smiling, "tough as nails". My deepest heart felt sympathies go out to the family. The Seamon family has always been a solid family for all of Prattville. Buck Jones

“ While living in Millbrook, Shon not only became one of my best friends in Alabama but one of my best friends in life. The call I received telling me of his passing touched my heart very deeply. Shon was a great companion. Shon's personality lit up a room and lifted the spirits of those around him. Rest in peace my dear friend. Karen, may God comfort you and all the family.

“ We were having children during the same time frame, at least we had Buff, Boog, and Bull at the same age. We mothers were all in school with Shon and husbands were all friends.
Shon and Butch were both baptized at Calvary Baptist Church, hwy 82 in Prattville many years ago.
