“ Thank you Irene for getting in touch with us. It has been years since we have seen Sid. We always look forward to his Christmas card and his writing about our good times in Naples, Italy. He and Ray were both stationed there with the Navy in the 50's.

Sending our Sympathy to you and to all of Sid's family.

“ I love you very much Uncle Sid and I will miss you with all my heart. I know you and dad (your brother Manfred Charles Williams) are up in Heaven remembering the times we use to come and visit you when we lived in Atlanta and the two of you growing up together in Michigan.

“ Sid was a friend of the Rantz family for many years. I've known Sid since I was a teenager back in the 1970's. He and my father were Navy buddies, and both married Italian women. I enjoyed talking with him this past year about our favorite History channel shows. He had hoped he would still be alive when they finally found the big treasure on Oak Island. I'm sure he'll be watching these shows from above now. Sid, I relieve you of the Watch - rest in peace, Shipmate!
