“ Sue, I am so sorry about your daughter. My heart and prayers go out to you and the family. Nothing I say or do will help. I just wanted you to know I am thinking of you and praying for all of you because I know all of you are hurting beyond measure. Turn your eyes toward Jesus and ask for His help.

“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it].” Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories, as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.
