“ Many great memories of Uncle Allen. Once he hunted me down at a family reunion, looked at me intensely, then slowly held up his hand with the missing finger(s) parts. The numbs were in my face. "Boy," he said, "pay attention to that saw, these things won't grow back." I still think of him whenever I use a saw. Chris G.

Allen Carmichael was a father to me and most of the kids on Nichols Street. His love of laughter was infectious as was his love of life and the people in it. I will truly miss Mr. C.
