“ Sue you were an inspiration to anyone who knew you. You found and shared joy throughout your life. I have so many fond memories of good times and laughter. You are in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ now, with no more pain. It is us that are left behind which will miss you always. Fly high sweet angel and may your family share the legacy you left behind with each other and all those who knew you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I went school with Sue she was the sweetest person. She loved everybody! I went into law enforcement and I was sent to an automobile accident it was at Conbsford Rd and McQueen Smith Rd. When I arrived Sue was involved. She was very upset because she was pregnant and was very fearful of losing the baby. She was checked out by the medics and was cleared. I called her several times after the wreck checking on her. Was so excited about having a son. So Nick she worried about even before your first breath. You was her world!

Prayers for your family!

“ Sue we had some good memories and some good times. You were and still are a very great lady. Death does not eliminate you from existing in our memories and hearts. Janet and me so loved seeing you at the last reunion and we will meet again. Knowing what blessing you have been to so many and passed on that greatness to others. Loving you and sending prayers to Martin, your son, and other family. God Bless

“ When my sister Leslie and I first moved to Prattville we were of course a little scared of starting at a new school and riding the bus. I remember Sue sitting there so absolutely beautiful and immediately she said Hi to me and asked if I would like to share her seat on the bus. From that day forward we were Friends! You never forget a Random Act of Kindness and the impact that it made on me. Sue was not only beautiful on the outside but had a beautiful soul to match.

“ To all of Susan's family, I am so very sorry for your loss. You all are in my thoughts and prayers as you are in so many during this time. I have great memories of Susan as I knew her much of my life. We went to school together for many years, and I was so very thankful to reconnect with her via Facebook. She was always upbeat and positive. Always had nice and positive things to say and never complained about the battle she was fighting. I know it is not of much comfort right now, but she is now healthy and no longer sick. She won her battle and she is in the arms of our Lord and Savior. She is now your Guardian Angel. RIP Susan.....you are missed by many.

Dearest Babs, know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Susan was so beautiful as is Kathleen and Debbie. I know what joy she brought to each of your lives as well as the many people who she crossed paths with. Your lives will forever be changed. Hold your precious memories of her close to your hearts. Lean on family and friends during this sad time in your lives. With deepest love,
