“ Emily was a great neighbor when we lived in Montgomery and was a great baby sitter for my daughter. RIP in peace.

“ Our family always loved and enjoyed when Emily and her husband came to visit us in Florida. She was such a kind and funny lady. I loved her stories she told of growing up in a large family. I know she will be greatly missed by all and I hope her reunion with her beloved husband was all she dreamt it would be. ❤️❤️

“ While we did not get to see Emily much because we live out of state she always had such a smile on her face and you could tell she loved everyone. Heidi, John, CJ, Toni and Anthony we are so sorry for your loss and are praying for you all that the Lord will be close and bring you comfort. While heartbreaking and bittersweet we pray that you will have many wonderful memories of her and that you will always carry her in your heart. May she rest in peace. All our love to you! Love, Dad and Kelly
