PS

“ I met Teresa when I worked for the State and found a need for our family from her company. She made you feel special and was so warm that you felt as if you had known her all of your life. She had been through the most difficult of trials with her daughter's illness and still was strong. She was an inspiration in my life that I will never forget. When she was promoted, she still took the time to help with whatever was needed for our other employees. My heart goes out to her family to lose her at such a young age. May God bless her and her family.

“ Teresa has inspired me in so many ways. The one that stands out the most is her drive for success. When I first started working for Aflac, I was second guessing myself in choosing a career in outside sales because I was afraid I would fail and afraid that I would be no good at it. Teresa told me something that has always stuck with me. She said "it's okay to be afraid to fail, but it's never okay to not give yourself a chance to succeed." That was in 2013 and I am still with the company today. Thank you, Teresa, for believing in me even when I doubted myself. I love you and I will miss you dearly. Kashira

“ I will never forgot our time in NYC caring for our children at the hospital and living in rooms side by side at the Ronald McDonald House. You and I became very close friends, and shared moments I will treasure forever. RIP my beautiful dear friend. I wish there was a way for me to come and say my final goodbye from Australia. My heart is heavy and part of it will always be with you. Melissa.

“ *My Beautiful, Wonderful, Thoughtful, Loving Sister. She has Always meant the world to me, Brad, Chelsey, and Christian. Teresa has always been an inspiration to me. To see her strength, her wisdom, her Absolute Love of her Family and Friends. I know that she is in Heaven with Our Lord and Savior. Jesus Christ. She is so missed, it is so hard to say goodbye for now, but I know that when our time comes, she will be at The Gates of Heaven with All of our other Loved ones Smiling with her arms open wide to welcome ball of us. We Love You !!!
