“ Terry was my brother I loved him so much but I never measured up to his standards not anyone else's for that matter. He tried to help me a few times and I appreciate it more than anyone will ever know. I remember going to South Carolina and living with him and his girlfriend Debra I wish I could go back to that time when there was no care in the world except for what had happened a few months before that messed my life up and mind up forever. I wish I hadn't let him down. Now he'll never know. I loved my brother and his wife and step daughter Nikki and her brothers and grandma's butt too. I wish they would have loved me for who and what I am and didn't let it bother or embarrass them. I'm all alone in this world now. I pray to see him and my momma soon in September of this year. I don't have long myself but I love my family regardless except our sister Renee. Goodbye Terry you'll be missed by me and many. To the rest of the family I'm sorry I couldn't be at the funeral. I've got COVID-19 and on bed rest. But I'm not allowed to be around BriAnna and Renee per court orders. I love u all. Bye.

“ Met Terry Seale in 1989. I liked him rite off. He came to SC after Hugo and my friend introduced him to me. I was taken in fast. He was so sweet and down to earth. Stay with him for 32 years then God called him home. I heard so many stories about his life. The good the bad the ugly so to speak lol. We cut a lit of trees together after Hugo. The best time if my life. Will miss him dearly. He was one of a kind literally but I loved him. We will meet again. Love and miss you always Terry Seale. Til we meet again God be with us all. Amen

Terry an I butted heads throughout the years but we always found our way back to being family and friends. I will miss seeing him along with him calling me on my birthday. He never missed it until he got sick. I love him like a brother and I wl miss him so much. Rest in peace sweet Terry. You will never be forgotten and I know that you are with Jesus where you longed to be. I love you forever. ❤️❤️❤️
