“ I am very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Gartman. I did not know him personally, but I am sure that he will be missed very much by his family and friends. Understandably, losing a loved one in death is a very emotional and sorrow-filled time. But please know that you are not alone and that we have wonderful hopes for the future. God takes notice of your sorrow, and he has promised us that soon, no one will lose a loved one in death ever again (Isaiah 25:8). We also have the hope of being able to enjoy life with our loved ones who have passed away in death again (Acts 24:15). I hope that these thoughts will provide the family and friends of Mr. Gartman with a measure of comfort.
