“ If my mother Evelyn Kennedy could express herself I'm sure she would have many stories. Our family extends our heartfelt condolences to your family, during these difficult days.

“ There were only a few times that I remember getting to stay with Uncle Tom and Aunt Ann, but they are very good memories. They were both kind and sweet to me and my sisters, particularly after the death of our own father when we were pretty young. I especially remember the kind thoughts and wishes they had for our mother after daddy's death, which is something we didn't seem to see a lot of. Our visits with them were warm and fun, Uncle Tommy so sweet, and Aunt Ann, always seeming so cool to me. I remember her making a bundt cake with me that I still make these days sometimes. I also remember Uncle Tommy trying to help remove the cake from the pan. It hadn't cooled enough, so it came out of the pan in pieces. I remember his sheepish face as she deadpanned "Thanks, Tom." It was still good cake, though.

If all things are right and good, I hope they are together now.
