I will miss you always babe. I loved you as a sister and best friend. Loved the 3 years you lived with us. We had many fun times. When last I spoke to you about 3 weeks ago you were so full of laughter and caring. Worried about me and my cancer. You mentioned how you felt but never did I dream this. RIP beautiful. Til we meet again. Oh I remember that baby pic so well and the days you and Pam were born.

“ I got the chance to meet "Aunt Tonya" through my best friend, Kayla.

I remember the first time I met you at the apartment in Hagerstown. I laughed so hard that day my stomach hurt. The few other times I saw you I laughed just as hard. You were so kind, yet would put someone in there place in a heartbeat. I saw how much you loved Bentley, and how much Bentley loved you. Anytime Kayla and I had a disagreement you were right there trying to make it right. The last time I saw you was right before you moved to Alabama. We all went to the mall, I was pregnant with Jackson. My favorite memory of you was riding the animal scooter around the mall with Bentley. The guy told you to stay in certain limits and to have it back in a certain time... Next thing Kayla and I knew we were running around the mall looking for you guys because it was LONG after the time you were supposed to be back!! We laughed soooo hard watching you race around people, and searching for you guys throughout the entire mall. I thought for sure I was going to go into labor!!

I wish I would have gotten to spend more time with you because you were such a kind hearted woman! It makes me sad that Ryland wont get to have those same awesome memories with you but I know Bentley will share his memories with his brother <3

To the family, my prayers and love are with you during this time love you all !!!!

Pam I am so sorry for your families loss. Reconnecting with her on Facebook was great. She was defiantly that friend that you had to warn you were on speaker before you let her talk. Lol.

Tonya,

I've been SO busy all week and I sit here struggling with the words to express what I feel in my heart. I actually think I was chasing my tail this week to keep from letting all of this sink in. I guess there is no getting around it and I need to set my own feelings aside and be happy that you are no longer in pain or struggling with the incredible obstacles that life threw at you. You were perfectly imperfect and I was so very proud of you and so darn thankful that you found happiness within yourself and also found true love. You had a huge heart and you loved so hard and so deeply. That heart of yours can rest now and we will do our best to find comfort in knowing that we will see you again, someday. You were like a big sister to me and I was so grateful for all of the crazy memories we shared.

I'll never forget the time that you and Pam showed us girls how to get rid of our vegetables by spitting them into a napkin and then flushing them down the toilet. We got away with it until Sherry failed to flush all of hers and Dave found them floating when he went into Grandma's bathroom! lol

You usually weren't "politically correct" or beat around the bush about anything but that is what made you, you. And yes, I will always remember that I am "Slut Jr." and you were Slut Sr.; you crazy girl. Thank you for always reaching out to me, no matter how far away you were. Please give Grandma and Aunt Jo a hug for me.

Love,

Shelby
