“ Vic always reminded me of a big lovable Teddy Bear. He was always up for a hug. He and Ginny were always so hospitable and caring. They introduced us to Royal Reds, took us for rides in his convertible, and invited us into their home to share meals. Vic called often to check on us, especially when we were sick, or he didn't see us at church. He and Ginny were the kind of church members every Pastor loves to have. He loved his Lord, he loved his church, he loved his wife and family, and we knew he loved us. He was love in action! I know he is praising the Lord in a mighty way today. The world is a little dimmer without him, but Heaven is a lot brighter now. Though we haven't seen him in a while, we will miss him. Ginny, we will be praying for you and your family. Love, Elise and Chip Smith
