“ Tammy;

So sorry to hear of your mother's passing. Virginia is one of the most wonderful people in our family. Due to short notice and weather (again, like your dad's memorial service) the weather prevents me from traveling down for the funeral. As your cousin I do know you are following your mom's footsteps as a mother and woman of Christ. Our prayers for your family will be offered continually over the coming days. I hope Mike was able to come in by making the trip from out west. I was down about three years ago. I wanted to cook breakfast for Ed and Virginia. I burned her skillet to a crisp. She was so gracious. One evening she and Ed had plans to catch a free meal at a "fire/smoke alarm sales pitch" at some local Catfish House. Ed didn't wish to go. I took your mom pretending to be Ed. We laughed so hard we cried as the salesman put on the "pressure" and none of our answers lined up. Reading the other comments, it is a constant that your mom's laugh was truly spontaneous and contagious. She was a fine woman. As her legacy, be sure to follow her path to heaven and enjoy each day as none of us have guarantee of another.

“ Tammy,
I have the greatest memories of your mother, especially when we were younger. She was much loved and a great person to talk to. I had found a shawl she made me when I was about twenty years old. I had put it on our couch to remind me of her. May the Lord bless and keep your family, and we will keep you in our prayers. Love in Christ, Paula

“ She loved the Lord, Family and the church. To all she was kind and loving - I'm very blessed to call her Aunt Virginia. Uncle Eddie and Aunt Virginia always gave me good advice when it came to life. I always wished our family was closer together - we have always lived so far away. Someday we will all be together and know that you have left your footprints in many lives. Tammy will follow in your footsteps - I just know it.
