“ Aunt Jenny was always such a joy. Her and Uncle Jesse were so much fun to be with . Her smile will always remain a bright light in our lives. In 2012, they came to Greenville to say bye to Mom and give support to 6 heartbroken siblings. Uncle Jesse was not well but was holding strong with his beloved wife by his side, lending all of us support. Aunt Jenny was young at heart and I could only hope I look as good as her when I hit 80. My deepest sympathy to cousins Gary & Angela, their families and the whole Anderson family.

“ The last time I saw Aunt Jenny she came to Greenville for the spreading of mommas ashes. She wanted to be there to pay her respect to momma, and to support us. She had a good heart. Heaven has another angel.

“ Two weeks ago I saw Jenny, she looked beautiful that day. It was an honor to visit with her. Her one request “Sharon, when I’m gone take care of Angie. Take her out of the house to the beach”I promised absolutely I will💕 I’m so deeply sorry she had to go, God needed an Angel and her name was called💕
