“ Always loved Mr. P, and decided to google him today because I usually run into him every couple of years and I haven't in a while. I'm so sad to know the last time was the last time. He is certainly missed, and obviously touched so many lives including mine for the past 30+ years. Just an awesome, awesome man!

“ I started thinking about Mr. P a lot lately and noticed I hadn't seen, or thought I had missed, having seen him post much in a while on Facebook, so I visited his page today and realized he had died. My heart just sank for Mark and the rest of the family and I hate I hadn't realized he had passed away sooner. I first met him in 1982 and worked for him as an 18 year old and came back and worked for him again when I was in my 30's for five years. He was a good man, always kind to me, and he will be missed by too many people to count.

“ I just heard about Mr Powells death. I am so sorry. I met him when I worked at the post office on Southern Blvd in and went to Countrys for lunch and read books. He teased me about my reading and always spoke to me. The office moved in 1989 and I went to The Atlanta Hwy restaurant and then the new restaurant. My favorite was Q-Stew. My husband and I along with friend Bonnie were at Countrys on the last day. I had to be there because it was my favorite place. Recently I saw Mr Powell and we talked about salvation and the promise of eternal life in Heaven. He said he knew the Lord. I'm thankful. I pray his family has that promise too. May the Lord bless you with wonderful memories of him. God Bless.
